Township hopes to secure title with hockey marathon

January 12, 2009

RECORD STAFF

WOOLWICH TOWNSHIP

The township that wants to be the next CBC Hockeyville will host a 26-hour hockey blitz this weekend. Hockey action starts at 7 a.m. Saturday at the Elmira arena and continues until 9 a.m. Sunday. One game will include the Wang family, who have eight children in minor hockey. Organizers will also host an all-Mennonite game, as well as a game played only by people with the last name Martin. There will be a celebrity game against Elmira Sugar Kings alumni at 8 p.m. The top 10 Canadian communities in the running for Hockeyville will be announced this Wednesday night at 8 p.m. on CBC. After that broadcast, voting opens to determine the top five. For more information on Woolwich Township's bid, visit www.woolwichhockeyville.ca.
