Woolwich advances in CBC's Hockeyville contest

RECORD STAFF

There's only nine other towns standing in between Woolwich Township and the title of Hockeyville for 2009.

The top 10 list of contenders to be named Hockeyville -- Canada's ultimate hockey community -- were revealed at 8 p.m. tonight on CBC-7. Viewers now have until 11:59 p.m. Sunday to cast their votes to get their town into the top five.

At stake is a chance to host an NHL pre-season game and $100,000 in arena upgrades. The other four get $25,000 for their rinks.

Residents of the township, which includes Elmira, have been posting their thoughts on why Woolwich should be named Hockeyville.

Votes can be placed on the Hockeyville home page. Or, to vote directly for Woolwich, visit www.woolwichhockeyville.ca or phone 1-866-530-8066 or text message 222111 with the community name (Woolwich). Standard text rates apply.

The five community finalists will be announced on Hockey Night In Canada on a series of Saturday broadcasts -- Jan. 31, Feb. 7, Feb. 14, Feb. 21 and Feb. 28 with Hockey Night broadcasting from each of the five finalists' towns. Audiences will then vote, until March 4 at 5 p.m. east time, for the ultimate champion.
